GRADUATION SONG

Tune of "COMRADES"

*Alma Mater, our days with you are through.
You've made each task a pleasure.
We've shared our joys with you;
For every happy day we've spent
We pay our gratitude.
Dear Ellsworth High
We must now say good-bye;
So it's Farewell, to you.*

BY LOUIS PITNEY.

CLASS NIGHT SONG

To Tune of STEIN SONG

*We, the class of thirty-eight,
Marching on together,
Striving hard to reach our goal
No matter what the fate or weather.*

*We shall always do our best,
Strive to succeed our motto,
'Till we reach that goal we never rest,
We'll work until we all have won.*

*Say good-bye
To all those
Who have helped us and guided us through the years.*

*Don't forget
Ellsworth High
So to Ellsworth let's give these three cheers.*

*Ellsworth, Ellsworth, Ellsworth High,
We are now going to leave you;
In our hearts will ever linger
Mem'ries of the school we love.*

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1938

We, the second graduating class of Ellsworth Memorial High School, situated in the town of South Windsor, County of Hartford, in the State of Connecticut of the United States of America, being in a sound and generous state of mind, do hereby bequeath the following:

Frank Burnham leaves the Yankees to Paul Barry to love, honor and applaud.

Stacha Saruta leaves her roller skates to whoever can stand up on them.

Jean Dowd leaves her ability for skipping periods to John Coyne, who may have better luck than she had.

Betty Vibert leaves Joe Tracy in care of Eunice Case. Take good care of him, Eunice.

Jeanne Bolles leaves her Park Avenue appearance to Margaret Boucher.

Wanda Zelek leaves her giggles to Lillian Bajoris.

Anna Mikalonis leaves her typing ability to Wanda Wezowic.

Joyce Clapp leaves her bow ties to Ermond Pola. May their colors never run.

Stanley Lightfoot leaves his artistic ability to Herbert Hall.

Alton Lane leaves his "corn fed" appearance to Porter Collins, as well as a book on dieting.

Anna Huntley leaves her athletic ability to Barbara Burnham, but has decided to keep the red hair.

Doris Cadder leaves her Latin book to haunt one of Mr. Reardon's next year's pupils.

Maxine Schlichting leaves her A. A. check-book to Dot Ludlam. Here's hoping that there will be money in the treasury.

Bill Tobin leaves his "date-a-night" constitution to whoever can stand it.

Dick Stoughton leaves his ability to run a mile in 30 minutes to Charles Johnston.

Joe Janson donates his artistic acting to Geraldine Maloney with love and kisses.

Margaret Schlichting leaves her bewitching smile to Ruth Bastien. May it long be in circulation.

Bob Sargent leaves his sunny disposition to Norman Petersen. Shine on, Pete!

Ernestine Hack leaves her Shorthand book to Barbara Cooper. Don't study too hard, Barbara.

To Florence Maher we leave Edna Perkins' quietness. May she never get into trouble.

Jean Rockwell leaves her pleasant smiles to Doris Pola. We hope she uses them frequently.

Tim Riordan leaves his distinguished position on the Honor Roll to Ted Hitchcock.

Ruby Hack leaves her deep contralto voice to Carol Allen.

To Frances Kraucunas we leave Eileen Schlichting's athletic ability.

To Francis Potwine we leave Harold Berger's knack of keeping awake during his favorite classes.

Prudence Kobylanski leaves her mild temper to Aime Blais, and hopes he can keep it well under control as she did.

Herbert Nelson and Bill Sheridan leave their permanent waves to Edgar Woolam and Kenneth Pitney.

To the Junior Class, we leave the front steps and hope that they take as good care of them as the Seniors did.

Frank Krist leaves his handsome blond hair to Desmond Hyde. Long may it wave!

Freddie Jacobs leaves his bashfulness to David Murphy.

Gertrude Barber leaves her hair ribbons to Joe Tracy to keep the hair out of his eyes.

Mae Grigely leaves her pull with the house detective to the Junior girls who go to Washington next year.

Marion Beerwort leaves her peddling absent slips job plus a box of corn plasters to Eleanor Pease.

Helen Dworak and Veronica Muzykiewz leave their Polish Hop to whoever can learn it; so they, too, can entertain the bus drivers.

Louis Pitney wills his oratorical articulations to Ronald Steitz.

Helen Durkee leaves her ability to skip school to Charles Woolam.

Edwin Thresher leaves his hopping ability to Jack (Rabbit) Jorgensen.

To David Pease we leave Wanda Soboleski's blushes.

To John Bassinger we leave Roger Arnold's Chesterfieldian manners.

Rudy Gerl donates the Shop, "lock, stock, and barrel", to Vic Daley.

Chick Huehner leaves his dignity plus his "butch", with a pair of scissors to keep it in trim, to W. G. Thornton.

Pearl Bragg leaves to the Juniors her marvelous ability for making up mottoes.

To Bea Butler we leave Thelma Curtis' stature.

Frank Kiskunes kindly leaves his dear old English Literature book to Glenn Macbeth.

Amelia Parkins leaves her ability of writing to whoever needs it.

Foster Pease leaves his law cases to the Supreme Court. Will someone please solve them!

Thomas Sala leaves his ability to cross streets without mowing down the cars to Mr. Reardon. May his brakes work forever.

To Lois Holcomb we leave Veronica Sheridan's pleasing personality.

Vete Anderson's cat-naps between recitations we leave to Teddy Grant.

To Mr. Reardon we leave a box of cotton to stuff in his ears plus a box of blackboard erasers to replenish his exhausted supply.

In Testimony Whereof, we, the class of 1938, by Robert Huehner, President; Betty Vibert, Vice-President; Anna Mikalonis, Secretary; and Frank Burnham, Treasurer; hereunto set our hands and official seal this third day of June, in the year of Our Lord One Thousand, Nine Hundred and Thirty-Eight.

Signed, sealed and declared by the Class of 1938 of Ellsworth Memorial High School, for their last will and testament in the presence of us, who at its request, in its presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed ourselves as witnesses, on this third day of June, A. D. 1938.

Witnesses:

1. J. B. DRISCOLL,
2. RONALD M. ELLIS,
3. HAROLD J. A. COLLINS.

(Signed) THE CLASS OF 1938.

DORIS CADDER,

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF '38

In September, 1934, a group of students were starting their first day of High School. Some were beginning in Manchester and others in Rockville. As we recall those first two years of High School, many incidents stand out; activities that we participated in and enjoyed. Here we met the upperclassmen and felt ourselves a part of the school.

Then came our third year and at a new school. A year that meant leaving old friends and making new ones. We had soon elected our class officers and engaged in many events.

We derived much pleasure and satisfaction from our clubs and organizations; also from the many sports that both boys and girls were able to enjoy.

The high-light of our Junior year was the Junior-Senior Prom; one of the school's leading social events.

Again in September, 1937, we returned to school, but now we were Seniors, a distinction we had long looked forward to. With a determination to make this year one of success and achievement we chose our class officers: President, Robert Huehner; Vice-President, Betty Vibert; Secretary, Anna Mikalonis; Treasurer, Frank Burnham.

Soon we had formed our clubs again and plans were made for events in the year to come. The Hi-Y Club chose new members and continued to be an organization of great significance. Next, The Dramatic Club presented "The Admirable Crichton", claiming Betty Vibert and Joe Janson in leading roles.

The annual Sport Dance, given by the Home Economics Club, ushered in the season of sport. Again it was a complete success and a dance that school members will enjoy every year.

Mid-year exams advanced upon us, and soon were followed by our Minstrel Show, and a Banquet given in honor of the boys and girls Varsity Basketball teams.

April came, and with it the week we shall always remember, for it brought us the long anticipated trip to Washington.

There are many who have excelled in the field of sports and in other activities of our school. Those who won honors in soccer were: William Tobin, Frank Burnham, Edwin Thresher and Herbert Nelson. In Basketball: Frank Burnham, Robert Huehner, Robert Sargent, William Tobin, Vete Anderson and Richard Stoughton were outstanding among the boys; and Anna Huntley, Eileen Schlichting, Jean Dowd and Anna Mikalonis among the girls. To our cheer leaders, Jean Dowd and Betty Vibert, much credit is due for a successful season.

Others distinguished in our social life were: Frank Burnham as President of the Student Council and the Athletic Association; Edwin Thresher, Vice-President; Maxine Schlichting, Treasurer, and William Tobin as Secretary of the Athletic Association. Robert Sargent, Roger Arnold, Betty Vibert, and Robert Huehner were elected members of the Student Council, with Margaret Schlichting, as Vice-President, and Anna Mikalonis, as Secretary.

In appreciation of the many gifts and donations that Mr. Wood has presented to our school, a bronze plaque was given by the four classes of the school and placed in the front corridor of the building. At the dedication, President of the Student Council, Frank Burnham, made the presentation speech.

We have endeavored to live up to the high ideals of our school and make our success the greatest. Through co-operation with our Faculty and classmates, we have found pleasure; and we feel sure our accomplishments at Ellsworth Memorial High School will lead us to achievement.

MARION BEERWORT, Historian.

CLASS PROPHECY

The latest edition of Facts, June, 1963, one of Connecticut's leading magazines, has just been published. This month's edition has been given over to the homecoming events at Ellsworth Memorial High School. The most interesting part of this magazine is the section concerning the class of 1938, which, after twenty-five years of hard work, has accomplished more than any other class ever to graduate from Ellsworth Memorial High School. Through Betty Vibert, the editor of the magazine, and her very efficient staff of writers, which includes Jeanne Bolles, Maxine Schlichting, and Feature Editor, Roger Arnold, we get a very good picture of our classmates, who have for twenty-five whole years kept their noses to the grindstone and have come through with flying colors.

The front cover shows the latest war games of the U. S. Navy; Rear Admiral William Edwin Thresher is shown aboard the Flagship WAPPING. He is talking to Commodore Bob Huehner, Skipper of the recently christened battleship, the "Spirit of Broad Brook", which represents the latest improvement in maritime ships. Designed by Rudy Gerl, it is considered one of the most invincible vessels ever built by our Navy.

On the inside of the cover we see an advertisement for Eastern States Fertilizer. Foster Pease has just been elected President of this corporation and already has made many improvements in it.

The next picture we see is of Louis Pitney and his "Swingsters", featuring Frank Burnham, that maestro of the bazooka. This band is considered the first in the country to improve on Goodman's swing. The most attractive member of his band is his vocalist, Prudence Kobylanski, who the critics claim has immortalized swing.

Next, we come to "OVER THE EDITOR'S SHOULDER", which is a brief summary of the important events of the day. Vete Anderson, Ellsworth's greatest economist, is being consulted by the President about paying children to attend school.

Amelia Parkins has just opened a new beauty parlor. She reports a rushing business, especially from the boys in the Junior Class. Tim Riordan has just been appointed to police duty on the road from Broad Brook to Warehouse Point. Tim reports that six cars, a truck, and a hay wagon passed over the road in one day. Harold "Fat" Berger has been elected President of the State Grange, and leader of the all-girl degree team.

Frank Krist, pilot of United Air Lines' latest Trans-Atlantic ship, reports that Helen Durkee has been appointed head Hostess of the ship. Herb Nelson is now appearing with Barnum & Bailey circus as the mammoth man with the mammoth appetite. This appetite, he claims, was caused by lack of food in the school cafeteria and on the Washington trip.

HIGHLIGHTS IN THE FIELD OF SPORTS: Frank "Strangler" Kiskunes has just won a victory which proclaims him the heavyweight "wrassler" of the world. Stanley Lightfoot's track team of Radcliffe defeated Dick Stoughton's squad from Bryn Mawr. Mae Grigely has agreed to pitch softball for the world's champion girl team sponsored by Tyler's Soda Shop. Pearl Bragg will hold down the first sack. Miss Anna Huntley has accepted a position as Director of Athletics at Sargent College for girls.

HOLLYWOOD THROUGH A KNOT HOLE, by Doris Cadder, informs us of the budding romance between Joe Janson and his new leading lady, Anna Mikalonis. Helen Dworak and Veronica Muzykiewz, the famous acrobatic team, have just made their first appearance in "A Day at the Circus".

FOREIGN NEWS: Bill Tobin went to Turkey as a missionary, but was converted to Mohammedanism and has become a true "Muscleman". The reason for this change of faith is not yet known. It is suspected, however, that one of the laws of his new religion, permission for the pious followers of Mahomet to maintain four wives, lies at the bottom of this change of faith. Eva Padelsky, still traveling abroad, reports that she saw Bill Tobin riding through the streets of Cairo in a howdah.

COMMERCIAL NEWS: Bill Sheridan, head of the South Windsor General Store, announces that he has a fresh supply of rich milk and fresh eggs direct from the A. Lane farm. Thomas Sala has accepted a job as Engineer of the "Mud Skow", a river boat which operates between Broad Brook and Hartford. This transportation proves very useful to the people of Broad Brook, as the fare to Hartford, which is down-stream, is only half the fare up-stream. Stacha Saruta has been appointed Postmistress of Warehouse Point post office; we hear that the males prove very interesting to Stacha. Veronica Sheridan has just opened a new and exclusive school — The Bratville School for Girls. Wanda Zelek now supplies laughs for Jean Dowd's new joke book. Edna Perkins is editor of the new "Household Magazine", the main feature of which is "Time Savers", useful hints about the kitchen by Thelma Curtis. Eileen Schlichting has just opened a new cafeteria; Eileen's success is due to her training at Ellsworth Memorial High School. The Hack girls are successfully running a new dress shop, in which Marion Beerwort is featured as a model. Fred Jacobs, the Singing Cashier, is employed by Jean Rockwell in her new night club. Robert Sargent, because of Mr. Greer's early endeavors, is the now famous Chemist who has just discovered a new chemical — Dope Remover; it is used exclusively by Ellsworth High in all its classes. Plans for a five-room house have been submitted by Joyce Clapp, who is Brooklyn's best Architect and Interior Decorator. Gertrude Barber's editorial on "Hollywood's Way to a Fine Figure", appeals to the fairer readers. Wanda Saboleski's Day Nursery in Warehouse Point is considered the finest and most advanced nursery in the country.

FASHIONS: We get a glimpse of the latest fashions, clothes for all occasions — designed and modeled by Margaret Schlichting, Hollywood's cleverest dress designer.

As we close this magazine we notice on the back cover a full view picture of our school. Although the buildings have weathered the storms very well, the school still lacks that high quality that was present in 1938.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Under the guidance of its officers, the Athletic Association has increased its membership greatly over last year. Once again we owe much of the success of the program to Mr. Wood's kind contributions. The Association has been responsible for the organization and equipping of the soccer, and the boys' and girls' basketball varsity teams. Besides this, it has backed interclass games in basketball and softball. Next year, if possible, it will sponsor a baseball and probably a tennis team.

STUDENT COUNCIL

President	FRANK BURNHAM
Vice-President	MARGARET SCHLICHTING
Secretary	ANNA MIKALONIS

This organization is composed of all the officers of the Senior Class, the Presidents of all other classes, the leader of each organization, and a representative from each room.

By complete co-operation with the student body and the Faculty, the Council has taken over the responsibility of helping make decisions and solve problems which may arise concerning the policies of the school.

This year our Student Council was instrumental in the presenting of a plaque to Mr. Wood for his kind generosity in helping to make possible our school and for his many donations.

SOUTH WINDS' STAFF

The staff of South Winds, greatly enlarged from last year, have published a paper every month. Many improvements have been made in the paper and the results have been satisfactory. New features included this year are: Movie Review, Exchange Column, Joke Section, and a "bigger and better" Literary and Sport Section.

MR. ROBERT STOUGHTON

Under the leadership of Mr. Stoughton, the Hi-Y has completed its second year of active service in the school.

The purpose of the Hi-Y is to "Create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character."

The membership of the Club is limited to the three upper classes in school. During the year, the boys have enjoyed speakers, trips, and meetings with other Clubs, with the purpose of forming the qualities of good leadership, fair play and co-operation. Such training should prove invaluable to the members.

Front Row: Leah Harrington, Stella Dzidual, Doris Pola, Julia Yonika, Anne Wolk, Frances Zinker, Thelma Curtis.

Second Row: Helen Dworak, Mary Ahern, Jane Bailey, Margaret Kupchunos, Prudence Kobylanski, Wanda Soboleski.

Third Row: Patricia Vibert, Nancy Jones, Miss Hibbard, Edna Perkins, Eileen Schlichting.

Fourth Row: Eleanor Stead, Pauline Chapman, Caroline Stewart, Ruby Hack.

Note: Margaret Schlichting, President, was absent when this picture was taken.

SOCIAL CRAFT HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

President	MARGARET SCHLICHTING
Vice-President	DORIS POLA
Secretary	ANN WOLK
Treasurer	JULIA YONIKA
Faculty Advisor	MISS E. LEORA HIBBARD

At the end of their second year, the S. C. H. E. Club, under the direction of Miss Hibbard, can well look back on their achievements with pride. As the name implies, this Club combines social times with the teaching and practicing of craft work and home economics. The girls have also done much charity work and helped greatly in arranging and serving refreshments at the social events and Hi-Y meetings during the school year.

Eva Padelsky served as Treasurer for a half year.

Front Row: Barbara Cooper, Miss Talcott, Margaret Boucher.

DRAMATIC CLUB OFFICERS

President	JOSEPH JANSON
Vice-President	RICHARD STOUGHTON
Secretary	MARGARET BOUCHER
Treasurer	BARBARA COOPER
Faculty Advisor	MISS BARBARA TALCOTT

Under the direction of Miss Talcott, the Dramatic Club opened its second year with the presentation of "The Admirable Crichton". This production was very successful because of the complete co-operation of the Faculty and student body. A large profit was realized from the record crowd which attended.

Junior Class, Front Row: Margaret Boucher, Victor Daley, Joseph Tracy, Gordon Thornton.

VARSIITY CLUB

President	ROBERT HUEHNER
Vice-President	ANNA HUNTLEY
Secretary	IDA BALNIUS
Treasurer	RICHARD STOUGHTON

This Club, as the name implies, is composed of those boys and girls who have earned their varsity letters. The activities of the Club have been limited, but the members strive to promote better and cleaner sportsmanship in the school. In future years we are sure that this Club will be the goal of every student. Mr. Greer and Mr. Reardon have acted as Faculty advisors.

Front Row: Ruth Dowd, Regina Blozie, Eileen Schlichting, Anna Huntley, Frances Kraucunas, Barbara Burnham.

Second Row: Lydia Muzykiewz, Eleanor Pola, Mr. Hugh Greer, Coach, Frances Sedaras, Anna Mikalonis, Dorothy Ludlam.

Note: Miss Rena Hyson, Assistant Coach, and Jean Dowd, were absent when this picture was taken.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM

Through the generosity of Mr. Wood, the girls started on an attractive schedule with new suits and adequate equipment. Although many of the girls had never played together, they soon began to click effectively, defeating such teams as Rockville, Simsbury and Farmington. With the graduation of A. Mikalonis, E. Schlichting, A. Huntley, and J. Dowd, Coach Greer and Assistant Coach Hyson will rely on F. Kracunas, R. Dowd, F. Sedaras, B. Burnham and R. Blozie, veterans of this year's team.

Front Row: Paul Barry, Robert Sargent, Frank Burnham, Edwin Thresher, William Tobin.

Second Row: Victor Daley, Thomas Hickey, Herbert Nelson, Joseph Tracy, John Coyne.
Aime Blais, John Jorgensen, Douglas Swartz, Desmond Hyde.

Third Row: John Pease, Sherman Waldron, Hugh Howard, Earl Miller, Stanley Waldron.
Charles Muzykiewz, Edward Toconis, James Allen, Harold Wadsworth.

SOCCKER SQUAD

The soccer team, directed by Coach Greer, started our athletic activities this year. With the return of most of the players from last year, a good team was produced. Although the scores were not so satisfactory, the games were very close and well fought. Such teams as Bristol, Kingswood, Portland and Windsor were included in the schedule.

Front Row: Ronald Steitz, Manager.

Second Row: Aime Blais, Frank Burnham, William Tobin, Robert Huehner, Joseph Tracy.

Third Row: Charles Muzykiewz, Norman Petersen, Robert Sargent, Reynold Berger.

BOYS' BASKETBALL TEAM

The basketball team experienced an average season, while, at times, it showed championship caliber. In many games, the boys held their strong rivals up to the last few minutes of play, but luck was against them. The high lights of the season were victories over Weaver, Rockville, Portland and Stafford. Although Anderson, Burnham, Huehner, Sargent, Stoughton and Tobin are leaving, Coach Greer has what might be considered a first-string team returning next year and the prospects for a good season are very bright indeed.
